Position overview

The position is located within Audencia's Business and Society Department. Candidates must have expertise or show potential for teaching at undergraduate and graduate levels in the field of Economics. Activities include the conception and the management of economic courses in the Grande Ecole program and in the Bachelor Program (in English and in French), teaching and research.

Audencia Business School is triple accredited (AACSB, EQUIS and AMBA), and one of the leading European and French Business Schools. The school offers a wide range of programs including MSc, MBA, Executive MBA, European Master in Management, Doctorate and Executive Education Programmes, with 114 core faculty members from 24 countries.

The school is located in the city of Nantes, just 2 hours away from Paris by train, serviced by an international airport. With a vibrant city life full of cultural and other events, the sandy Atlantic coast to the west of the city and rolling vineyards and royal castles to the east, it is it an ideal city to live in. Perhaps these are the reasons for which Time Magazine selected Nantes as 'the most liveable city in Europe'. In addition to its pleasant environment, the city also boasts a rich economic and industrial identity. Nantes is rich in activity, with more than 1330 companies housed in the city.

Application

Candidates should send an electronic application by January 19th, including an application letter, a curriculum vitae (including a fullest of publications), one selected publication and/or one published case study, information regarding teaching performance and names of two referees by e-mail to André Sobczak, Audencia's Academic Director - faculty-recruitment@audencia.com.
