

Assistant / Associate Professor in Business Ethics

Position reference: BusEth22-AUD

Audencia (www.audencia.com) invites applications for the position of Assistant/Associate Professor in Business Ethics with a specialisation in Artificial Intelligence and Big Data. The position is for a full-time, non-fixed term contract and is effective immediately. The deadline for applications is on March 1st, 2022.

Position requirements

We are looking for applicants specialized in Business Ethics with expertise in Artificial Intelligence and Big Data in terms of both teaching and research. A broader interest in the areas of sustainability, business and society and corporate social responsibility would be highly valued. Applicants shall hold a Ph.D., and demonstrate strong teaching skills with experience at graduate, post-graduate and executive education levels in English. The teaching will deal, especially but not exclusively, with the scientific, managerial and ethical issues of big data and artificial intelligence. Demonstrated ability to coordinate educational programmes such as MSc, Master or Bachelor Degree Specializations would be an asset. The candidate must have an established (for Associate level) or promising (for Assistant level) record of high-impact research publications in peer-reviewed international journals. Evidence of attracting research funding is a plus.

Position overview

The new faculty member will join the Department of Organization Studies and Ethics at Audencia. The department consists of 30 core faculty members. The research we undertake and the courses we offer in our department encompass a wide range of topics grouped within the following expertise poles that are interrelated and have an interdisciplinary outlook: Sustainability, CSR and Ethics; Organization Studies; Human Resource Management; Organizational Behavior. The faculty's recent publications include articles in the following leading journals such as Academy of Management Journal, Business Ethics Quarterly, Business & Society, Journal of Business Ethics, Human Relations, and British Journal of Management among others. Faculty members are involved in Editorial Boards of top tier international and French journals as well as renowned academic associations. Research active members of our department are supported by distinguished International Affiliated Faculty. Our department is also home to the Positive Impact Chair.

Salary is negotiable and commensurate with potential and experience. There are a number of benefits attached to the contract including an individual research or pedagogical budget, the possibility to apply for additional internal funding opportunities, performance-based bonuses and family medical coverage.

Audencia is triple accredited (AACSB, EQUIS and AMBA) and one of the leading European and French business schools. The school offers a wide range of programs including MS Grande Ecole, MScs, MBA, Executive MBA, European Master in Management, Doctorate and Executive Education Programmes, with 149 core faculty members from 32 countries. The school is very dynamic, has grown significantly in the most recent years and will continue to do so with new positions opening in the future. Audencia fosters both high-level research and high-level pedagogy and has a workload model that allows faculty to place emphasis on either of the two.

The school has campuses in France and abroad. This position is for the Nantes campus. Nantes is just 2 hours away from Paris by train, serviced by an international airport.

The eclecticism of its landscapes and architecture, its dynamism and the diversity of its cultural events, along with the quality of the environment which won it the label of European Green Capital, regularly places Nantes at the top of the best cities to live in. In addition to its pleasant environment (vineyards, royal castles, rivers, the sandy Atlantic coast...), the city also boasts a rich economic and industrial identity. As the 6th largest city in France, the metropolitan region of Nantes is number two in the country in terms of job growth. In 2021, more than 55 803 companies are housed in the city.

Application

Candidates should send a cover letter, a recent curriculum vitae including a detailed list of publications, recent teaching evaluations, and contact information of two referees by e-mail to: Prof. Thibaut BARDON, Associate Dean for Faculty: faculty-recruitment@audencia.com.
